52(B) Read the poem below and in full sentences, answer the questions that follow.

She nurtures and loves her kids,
Sometimes she tells them what she dislikes.
When they are hurt, she is there with a hug,
And when they leave home, it is her they miss.

She is incomparable to anything in the world,
She is a light shining in the dark,
When her children's potentials surely have succeeded,
That's when she knows she has succeeded too.

She's a teacher, nurse and counselor,
I wish I could give her diamonds,
For the truth she has helped me see,
She is indeed a perfect mom.
