SECTION B (50 MARKS)

Questions 51 to 55 carry 10 marks each.

51. Read the passage below carefully and then answer in full sentence the questions that follow.

It was all excitement and happiness. Bruno Musa had received an admission letter to Senior One. It was at Pawanga High School. This had been his dream school since Primary One. The success was as a result of being hardworking, disciplined and prayerful. Attached to the admission letter was a list of requirements and a bank slip.

After rejoicing for a few minutes, the family remembered that they had to pay school fees in the bank. In the primary school where Bruno Musa had been, parents used to pay the school fees in the head teacher's office. So, there was a challenge of going to Atapara where they would find the bank. Luckily, Beda, Bruno Musa's father remembered that when he was still working in Atapara, he saved money with Summer Bank.

The following day, Bruno and his father boarded an early morning and the only bus in that village to Atapara. They went to pay the school fees and buy the school requirements. When they reached Atapara, they went straight to the bank. This was the very first time Bruno entered the bank. At the entrance, there were security guards. Inside the bank was a big table with a word RECEPTION. Behind it, there was a lady who welcomed them with a broad smile. She gave them the directions about what to do. Beda filled the cash withdrawal form. He took it to one of the tellers. She gave him the amount of money that he required. He then filled a cash deposit form. He forwarded the money and the form to the teller again. This was money for Bruno's school fees. He also gave the bank slip to the teller. Having received all that from Beda, the teller counted the money and stamped the four copies of the bank slips. She kept one copy and gave the other three to Beda. The parent, the school and the student had to get a copy each. Beda put the copies in his bag. It was a wonderful day.

You can be used at any time of the day.

Oh! Mobile telephone

You provide different services for your users

A clock to tell the time of the day

The calendar to show the date.

Oh! Mobile telephone

Capable of sending text and voice messages

No pen, paper or stamp needed for your messages

No misplacement or delays in delivery.

Oh! Mobile telephone

You are good but very expensive

You need airtime from time to time

And need battery charging now and then.

54. Below is a dialogue between Sophie and Mariam. Sophie's responses have been given. Write down what you think are Mariam's responses.

Sophie: Good morning, Mariam.

Mariam:

Sophie: Where are you going?

Mariam:

Sophie: To the bank? What are you going to do there?

Mariam:

Sophie: To deposit your school fees? How much money are you going to deposit?

Mariam:

Sophie: Fifty thousand shillings! That is little money. Why don't you take the hard cash to school?

Mariam:

Sophie: Why doesn't the school bursar receive hard cash?

Mariam:

Sophie: Which pupils had started forging his signature?

Mariam:

Sophie: The toys should be wired then. What did the bursar do to them?

Mariam:

Sophie: What happened after they had brought their parents?

Mariam:

Sophie: That was good if they were punished before their parents.

Mariam:

Sophie: Good day
